

AROUND THE WORLD WITH THE AMERICAN RED CROSS.

Recreation in Hospitals.

The American Red Cross conducts its recreational work in hospitals through trained men and women, introducing a multitude of recreations suited to the handicaps of the men. The accompanying view of a hospital ward shows in operation a moving picture projecting machine, developed by a Red Cross recreational director, which shows the pictures on the wall so that the men do not have to sit from their cots.

SELECTING MEN IN MICHIGAN

DETROIT, Mich., April 3.—The preference of Michigan republicans and democrats for presidential nominees will be registered next Monday in the state's second presidential preference primary.

Republicans have a field of seven to choose from, while the democrats have entered five in the lists. Two of the latter, William J. Bryan and William G. McAdoo, made unsuccessful efforts to have their names removed from the ballots. Withdrawal after certification, however, is not permitted under the state election laws, and the two names remained on the ballots.

An unusual situation results from the fact that the name of Herbert Hoover appears on both republican and democratic tickets. The double listing for the former food administrator was made possible when the state's attorney general ruled in operators, as applied to the presidential primary, the amendment passed by the last legislature requiring from candidates an affidavit of party affiliation.

The republican ticket comprises Senators Fuldner, of Washington, and Johnson of California; General Pershing, Major General Leonard Wood, Governor Lowden of Illinois, Mr. Hoover and William G. Simpson, of Detroit.

On the democratic ticket besides Mr. Hoover, Mr. McAdoo and Mr. Bryan, are Governor Edward L. Edwards, of New Jersey, and Attorney General Palmer.

Eugene V. Debs, of Indiana, is the sole candidate on the socialist ticket. How far the preference of the voters expressed in the primary will be regarded as binding upon the 30 delegates Michigan will send to each national convention, is a matter of speculation. No provision is made in the primary law binding the delegates to the primary expression, and the state's representatives at the convention may, if they so choose, swing their weight to another candidate after the first ballot is cast.

Man's Adam's Apple.

"Scientists are inclined to accept the theory," says John Walker Harrington in Popular Science Monthly, "that man came by long descent from ill-formed, spineless things that came to life by chemical action, probably in some tepid mineral spring, and found their way to the ocean. Then came the fish, which, as soon as they got backbones, began to develop something like Adam's apple. A man without an Adam's apple would be a poor fish. From the primitive form of the animal seen are believed to have come the mammals, from which spring the human race. It is a long story."

Ruby Page Ferguson on 1920 Chautauqua Program.

Ruby Page Ferguson, noted reader and interpreter of plays, presents on the second afternoon one of the most delightful features of the week in her monologue interpretation of the comedy, "Green Stockings." Presenting a complete play and doing it so realistically that the platform fairly seems peopled with characters is an art of the highest order. There are few people on the Chautauqua platform today who can accomplish this difficult thing with the success attained by Miss Ferguson.

AMUSEMENTS

WILL ROGERS IN DIFFERENT ROLL AT THE BUTLER

Those who have always associated Will Rogers, cowboy comedian, strictly with comedy, have a surprise waiting for them in "Water, Water Everywhere," his latest Goldwyn picture which will be shown at the Butler theatre tonight. In this play, which is a screen version of the "Billy Fortune" story which ran in the Saturday Evening Post, Mr. Rogers plays the part of a generous hearted cowboy who helps reform a worthless drunkard in order that he may marry the girl whom Billy (Rogers) himself loves. There is a lot of fun in the picture, but underlying it is a sweet and appealing story of renunciation and self sacrifice. Rogers shows himself capable of depicting grief, disappointment and sorrow in addition to those comic grimaces which have made millions laugh. It is a nice picture and a wonderful star. Added to the feature will be Mrs. Joe Martin, in "The Jungle Gentleman." Mrs. Joe is a great film star and always guarantees to please her audiences.

Tomorrow, one of the greatest pictures of the year, "23 1/2 Hours Leave." Everyone is urged to see this picture. It has been the talk of the film world ever since its release.

Monday, a screen classic, "Should a Woman Tell," with Alice Lake in the leading role.

MR. AND MRS. JOSEPH GUENET returned today from an extended visit to California points. They report a pleasant trip. Mr. Guenet brought back a new car which will be used by the Nevada Stage Co.
